

Antoine Albeau, is the new European Champion after fighting off a tough challenge from Polish ex World Champion Wojtek Brzozowski.

Antoine dominated in the strong wind races and did just enough to clinch victory on the final day of the competition. Being forced to withdraw from the Super X tour this year (following a face injury caused by a wipe-out at the Leucate speed event) it comes as some consolation that he walks away with the European Formula title!

Boardseeker Team rider, Lucy Horwood sailed superbly to take the Ladies European Title ahead of Italian Verena Fauster. Well done Lucy! Top Australian Allison Shreeve won the ladies overall, but being an Aussie she cant be European Champion!
