

Nick & Bryony Win RSX Miami comp

« Represent your beach at Camel Cup

Windsurfers take on rowers - at rowing »

Congratulations to Nick Dempsey & Bryony Shaw, flying the flag on top steps of the podium at the Rolex Miami OCR.

Lucy Horwood seems to have crossed over to daggerboard equipped racing from formula & picked up 3rd place, level points 3rd, and ahead of team mate & former Womens Formula World Champion Christine who took 5th place. Also putting in consistent results was Leo finishing in 11th place

Results are on the US Sailing site .

5 uk riders competing overseas, and all finishing with top 15 placings on the RSX, and topping the mens / ladies fleets too... a good sign for later comps.

About the event

From January 22 to 27, 2006, US SAILING's Rolex Miami OCR returns to the waters of Biscayne Bay, bringing together the world's top Olympic and Paralympic class competitors. The 17th annual US SAILING Rolex Miami OCR is a mainstay on the winter circuit for sailors who are campaigning for the next Olympic and Paralympic Games. The event is ranked by the International Sailing Federation (ISAF) as a Grade 1 event and features competition in 13 Olympic and Paralympic classes.

More from Sail World .